

KRISTEN HARDING

WRITER
DIRECTOR
EDITOR

I am a writer, director, and editor living in Brooklyn, New York. As a recent graduate of NYU's Tisch School of the Arts, I have had the opportunity to write and direct several of my own films while simultaneously gaining invaluable experience on both feature films and television shows. My passion lies in artistic expression via the sharing of compelling stories, and my work often combines naturalism and surrealism to create a new, unique outlook.

I'm a light-hearted, hardworking, and passionate filmmaker always striving to harness my skills while continuing to work, learn, and grow as a young professional and creative individual.
